These are available at the church office and we would appreciate you picking them up to save on postage. These will fit into the Directory that you would have received in 2012 if you had a picture taken at that time. These are 3 ring binders.

Those who joined Faith Lutheran after the directories were no longer available—you may pick one up at the office. Ask Connie for the binder.

These new pages include the pictures taken in November of 2017 and the New Members installed in October. There is also an updated list with addresses of the Faith Lutheran Family.
